What's Cooking?

You are a rat with a good nose for sniffing out food. Your brothers send you out to see what is being served up in the trenches. Report back.

EXCLUSIVE POST CARD EDITION Active Service, No. 33
AFTER THREE DAYS IN THE TRENCHES
French privates drink a glass of wine at the Village Inn

Think about the conditions. (Remember it is 1915).

You are allowed to send two parcels to your brother in the trenches; One is a food parcel, the other a clothing parcel.

Decide what he would find most useful, and make lists of what you would pack.

HIRSTY GERMAN PRISONERS IN THEIR BARBED WIRE CAGE

3rd November 1915

"Thanks for the parcel, I received all safe today. The socks fit fine. They will be just right - nice and thick. Had the cake for tea tonight. The weather is rather wet again.

From your ever loving,

Jack xx"
